

A Holiday from Another Culture

Use these questions to help you interview a person from another culture about a holiday.

1. Do all families in your community celebrate the holiday?
2. If all families celebrate the holiday, do they do so in the same way?
3. Are there special foods eaten at holiday time? If so, what are they?
4. What do people wear for the holiday?
5. Do people exchange gifts? If so, what kinds of gifts are given and received?
6. Are specific rituals performed at holiday time?
7. How do people communicate to young children and to people outside the community what the holiday means?
8. Would you include someone from a different culture in your holiday? If so, how would you do this?
9. Is there something you don't like about the holiday? If so, what is it?
10. Is there something you really like about the holiday? If so, what is it?

www.archives.alabama.gov